

SAYS THE SPANIARDS WERE BLUFFED

"We made a few observations of the two slaves. She objected to this at first. When she came to the ladder she hesitated at first, and then finally settling her thoughts she walked up the stairs. The rungs of the ladder were flat, so it was much easier to walk on them. As soon as she was on the roof of our study, we took her down the hallway and avoided a few moments and then took her to a carriage, a sort of wooden chamber in which she could sit. The gentleman in the carriage told her that he was her friend. The friend was holding a reputation that night, which was part of the bluff. The man who drove the carriage was one of the conspirators. From the time she issued from her cell, to the time she was taken to the home of a friend she showed none of the feminine apprehension so apt to be found in women in emer-

Novel Method of Disguise.
 "DORRAN, one of the Irish-American Saloon Keepers of Boston, who is leading the fight here against violators of the prohibitory law, failed in an attempt to purchase a drink. As he entered a well-known resort he wrapped his long whiskers about his neck, tucking them under his collar, to disguise himself. The bartender knew him and refused to serve him. When he got outside this place he took down his whiskers and returned to his home. He wanted to secure evidence to use against the saloon

Why the Blue Stone Business is Booming.
 The blue stone business, along the Erie and O. and W. is booming. Many orders are being received from places that are to become absorbed in Greater New York, and which have bonded for local improvements in advance of consolidation, their idea being that they will get the improvements while the bonds will be a charge against the big city.

A Great Surprise is in Store
 for those who will go to-day and get a package of GRAIN-O. It takes the place of coffee at about one-fourth the cost. It is a food drink, full of health and can be given to the children as well as the adult with great benefit. It is made of pure grains and looks and tastes like the finest grades of Mocha or Java coffee. It satisfies everyone. A cup of GRAIN-O is better for the system than a tonic, because its benefit is permanent. What it breaks down GRAIN-O builds up. Ask your grocer for GRAIN-O. Fifteen and twenty-five cents.

HUNDREDS OF THEM.
But There's a Material Difference When They Live in Middletown.
 There are a great many of them. Every paper has its share. Statements hard to believe, harder to prove.

Statements from far-away places. What people say in Maine. Public expression from California. Ofttimes good endorsement there. But of little service here at home. Middletown people want local proof. The sayings of neighbors, friends and citizens.
 Home endorsement counts. It dispels the skeptic, is beyond dispute.

This is the backing that stands behind every box of Doan's Kidney Pills: here is a case of it.
 W. H. Sutton, No. 56 North street, who has charge of the upholstering department of the O. and W. R. R., says: "My health has always been good with the exception of a kidney complaint that has caused me more or less trouble for the last two and a half or three years. Sometimes the pain in my loins was so bad I could not do anything. Every morning when I tried to get up my back was lame or stiff or sore. I do not know what caused it, but I do know that when I caught cold it was always worse. I tried amongst other things for it, Doan's Kidney Pills, getting them at J. E. Mills' drug store. In a very short time all traces of my complaint disappeared and I have not been troubled since. I think Doan's Kidney Pills a wonder."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold for 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50 Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for United States. Sent by mail on receipt of price. For sale by all dealers.
 Remember the name Doan's, and take no substitute.

Died in Clinton Prison.
 From the Ellenville Press.
 On the morning of Oct. 12, 1897, at Clinton Prison Hospital, it was announced that William Willis had died at 2 o'clock a. m. He was seventy-five years of age, and had been in prison since December 14, 1865, serving a life sentence for the murder of Robert Phelan's wife with a harness knife at Ellenville. For a number of years Willis had been too feeble to work, and the greater part of his time has been spent as a patient in the hospital. The cause of his death was cerebral apoplexy.

"Painless and Delightful Catarrh Remedy."
 is the good word which John MacInnes, Wathaback Bridge, N. S., has to say of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, after having suffered from catarrhal deafness for years. Not an excuse for despairing of a cure with such a remedy within reach of you."

TO CURE NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.
To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean, Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Interesting Experience of an Indianapolis Gentleman.
 —No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think that their nerves are to blame and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicine and spring remedies; the real seat of the mischief is lost sight of: the stomach is the organ to be looked after.
 Nervous dyspepsia often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every other organ; in some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite, with accumulation of gas, sour risings and heartburn.
 Mr. A. W. Sharper of No. 61 Prospect St., Indianapolis, Ind., writes as follows: "A motive of pure gratitude prompts me to write these few lines regarding the new and valuable medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have been a sufferer from nervous dyspepsia for the last four years; have used various patent medicines and other remedies without any favorable result. They sometimes gave temporary relief until the effects of the medicine wore off. I attributed this to my sedentary habits, being a bookkeeper with little physical exercise. But I am glad to state that the tablets have overcome all these obstacles, for I have gained in flesh, sleep better, and am better, in every way. The above is written not for notoriety, but is based on actual fact."
 Respectfully yours,
 A. W. Sharper.

61 Prospect St., Indianapolis, Ind.
 It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

ON THE TIP OF THE TONGUE.
 A man from Sullivan county came to this city, Thursday night, with a fine lot of pickled. He appeared in a well known hotel with them and they were snapped up like hot cakes at twelve cents a pound. The word spread outside and the man could have sold a barrel of fish to the applicants who appeared.

"Jim" Coons wouldn't take the job. He had been looking for one for a long time and the Commercial House jokers kept him on the go somewhere or other. Then Jim's eyes—verybody knows Jim and his eyes—saw that W. D. Steele, who conducts the Cottage street "Hunter's Rest," had advertised for a bartender. "Jim" applied and asked his duties. He was told that he would have to clean up the bar room, and ("Billy" led his young wild cat from behind the bar) take the cat out for a walk every morning. "Jim" took one look at the cat and abruptly left. He didn't want the job.

Those who have heard the late Gus DeHart around an Erie week in days gone by and marveled at his command of a branch of the English language distinctively his own could not refer to it in comparison with the man who is moving the Pound & Jordan building. The work progressed carefully and steadily almost without a word from employee or employer. It was clean cut work and commanded the admiration of those who stood about.

It's funny how a simple newspaper article will change the plans of some people. The little squirrel story in Thursday night's Argus has scattered the hunters all over the county. Well known shots, whose favorite grounds were unannounced, went somewhere else this morning, because they didn't want to sit in the woods and hear a dozen guns popping away at squirrels, the gunners being attracted there because "so and so went there; it must be a good ground." Several of the good shots also remained home, having postponed their hunting until the hunters had their trial at frightening the nimble greys.

A pretty romance is knocked in the head. Karl Duval Decker, who rescued Cisneros from the Spanish jail is married. The Journal could have capped the whole business and paid all expenses by marrying the rescued and her rescuer in Madison Square Garden and charging a fifty cent admission.
 On the other hand the World could make a grand coup by marrying its best reporter to Cisneros.

The excellence of the town nominations made by "Orange County Democrats" deserves a word of praise for the wisdom and regard for the public interest that dictated their choice. Even in towns so strongly Republican that there is but little chance of election Democrats have put their best men to the front. The interests of the people will be safe if entrusted to the hands of the men who are running for local office on the Democratic tickets in the different towns.

Democrats and Republicans who are supporting Democratic candidates for city offices because they are pledged to a more economical policy in the conduct of city affairs are greatly encouraged by the reports received as to the large number of Republicans who are prepared to break away from the machine and its candidates and vote for candidates who stand for lower taxes and greater regard for the rights of property owners.

This is a good time for Democrats to reason with their Republican neighbors and calmly discuss the local political situation. The election of Republican candidates for city offices means simply the perpetuation of existing evils, the chief of which is a most oppressive tax rate. It means, too, the perpetuation of the present machine, which assumes to dictate nominations, distribute patronage and deprive the plain citizen of all voice in party affairs. There never was a better time for independent Republicans to rise above partisanship and vote intelligently and as their interests dictate.

TO ESCAPE JAIL BY WEDDING

A Former Middletown Arrested—Gave the Girl He Deserted $10 to Buy a Ring.

Frederick Hansen, a sub-senior twenty-four years old, who lives at the West Shore Hotel, Eleventh avenue and Fort-second street, and who was formerly an O. and W. newsboy and who is well known in this city, was arrested, yesterday, at the Yorkville Police Court by Detective Sergeant Farley, of the District Attorney's office on bench warrant issued a year ago.

Hansen was indicted on complaint of Jennie Bonney, a pretty young girl, who was in the court house when Hansen was arrested. The prisoner shipped a $10 bill into the girl's hand, and told her to buy a wedding ring.

"Come to court, to-morrow, and save me," he whispered to her. "We will then get married."

The girl promised to do as he asked, and Hansen is in the Toole's, waiting for marriage bonds to set him free.

WITH THE HUNTERS.

Many Wagon Loads of Hunters Went Out of Town Before Daylight This Morning.

This has been a royal day for the hunters, and many took advantage of it. Those who were up about 4 o'clock state that many wagons filled with men left town going in all directions.

Among those whose absence has been discovered are City Attorney Bradner who had a good string of squirrels at 9 o'clock at the Boyd farm, Crystal Run; Recorder Barnes and Officer Sharpe who went to Thompson Ridge, and have telegraphed for a wagon to meet them at the O. and W. depot; Thomas Perry, Richard Slater and a host of others.

A Road on Top of the Shawangunks.

From the Ellenville Journal.

We understand that Botsford will commence a road toward Lake Awosting, to meet that which the Smileys are projecting this way. Meanwhile parties from near Bloomingburg say they will make a road to the point which used to be known as Evansville on the plank road, thus completing a highway along the mountain top from Mohouk to Bloomingburg—the most picturesque drive in the State. The summer dwellers at Cragmoor, as well as the year-round residents, anticipate a big boom for that place next season.

THE HOUSE WAS MOVED.

Many Stood by and Watched the Work Until An Early Hour This Morning.

Pound & Jordan gave a reception Thursday night, from 7:30 p. m. to 3 a. m., to several hundred Middletowners, at the corner of North street, Cortland street and Railroad avenue. The entertainment provided was the moving of a $1500 or $2000 house on a $500 truck from a corner lot to another lot 180 feet up Cortland street. The crowd diminished as the hour grew late, but there were nearly a hundred who waited for 12 o'clock, when the wires would be cut and the house pulled clear across North street. About 10:30 the trolley roof garden wagon appeared, and the assistant superintendent, Samuel Gausman, and his assistant, Simpson, were ready to cut the trolley wire. Supt. of Fire Alarm Wilkinson was also there and the telephone and electric light company men. The wire circuit was cut early in the evening and re-connected so that the big arc light at the corner could be used.

The "robustness" or "night hawks" began to put in an appearance about midnight, to watch the work. Everything was in readiness. Three cars had been stored on the Depot street track for use to-day on the lower end of the line in case an accident should leave the house sitting in the middle of North street all day. The last car was sent through and then the trolley wire was cut; then the block signal wires and then, while warning was given those in the immediate vicinity to look out, all the other wires were snapped in two, and a volley of sparks flew. The wires were taken up and the old gray and the bay at the "crabs" began wading up the tackle which pulled the house along on the spirit-levelled and soaped timber tracks.

Not a jar, not a crack in a wall; not a brick out of place in the chimney—it was indeed a splendid example of modern ingenuity.

North street was cleared by 2:30, and the movers expect to have the house solid on its new foundation by to-morrow night.

The prices are much lower than we have ever placed on goods of equal quality.

THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Annual Meeting in this City, To-day—Reports of Officers and Payment of Premiums.

The annual meeting of the directors of the Orange County Agricultural Society was held in this city, this afternoon.

The directors from the eastern part of county reached here at 11:25 and went into executive session at the Russell House. Little business of interest was transacted. G. A. Swayze, C. L. Elwood and E. A. Brown were appointed a committee to collect a balance of $410 still unpaid of the subscription of $1,650 made by Middletown business men to secure the fair.

The directors met at the Assembly Rooms, at 2:15 when about one hundred premium winners, etc., were present. The directors present were Messrs. Denniston, Morrison, Sears, Clark, Wells, Thompson, Swayze, Hallock, Reagin, Waring, Sanford, Howell and Fowler.

President Denniston addressed the gathering, saying that it was the 57th annual meeting which had been held by the society.

OFFICERS' REPORTS.

Secretary Morrison then read his annual report.

Treasurer Waring next read his report. General Superintendent Wells reported on his duties, the preparation of the grounds, etc. He recommended the covering of the horse sheds and other buildings with wooden roofs, many exhibitors objecting to canvas roofs. He thanked the Middletown people for their attendance.

Superintendent of Gates and Flocks, S. H. Sanford, reported on the total number of admissions, etc.

Superintendent of Horses, George A. Swayze, reported on the races. The latter showed a deficit. The total cost to the association for the races was $637.50.

Superintendent H. D. Thompson, of sheep and swine department, said the exhibit of the State Hospital attracted universal attention.

He also reported as foreign commissioner. The society now has eight tons of hay on hand. He recommended the draining of the land on the interior of the grounds.

Mrs. B. B. Williams reported for the domestic department. She referred to the universal interest, the work of the assistants, etc. She recommended more space for the department. She advised a revision of the catalogue, glass show cases, china closets, and that the fair close at 3 on the last day instead of at 4. She thanked Mr. Swayze for the grand stand allowed the ladies, and the officers of the department. She was applauded on completion.

Mr. Denniston spoke of the deficit in the treasury, and suggested that some action be taken to meet bills. The State money, he said, would be received some time in the next few months. He believed that the latter would amount to at least $3,000.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

President Denniston declined reelection but the Society would not have it sound he was unanimously re-elected.

E. C. Sears was re-elected First Vice-President.

E. H. Harriman was elected Second Vice-President.

D. A. Morrison was elected Secretary although he declined reelection.

H. M. Waring was re-elected Treasurer although he too declined to serve any longer.

NEARLY LOST HIS MEAT.

Train Crew Picked Up a Swift Beef Car, Half Unloaded, and Took It to Hancock Before Being Stopped.

During the night a freight crew came along and picked the car out of the switch as an "empty" and started back to Chicago with it. The absence of the car was discovered and a telegraph message landed it off at Hancock, and it will be returned here, to-day.

Saturday will be the very last opportunity for registration, and on that day, whether in city, village, or a rural district, voters desiring registration will be obliged to appear in person.

The Argus desires to urge upon all citizens, and especially, of course, upon all sympathizers with the Democratic party, the imperative need of prompt attention to this duty. Don't put off until Saturday what can be done on Friday. If you neglected, or forgot, or were unable to register last Saturday, the same may be true next Saturday if you wait until then. Register to-day!

Boards will sit to-day for purposes of registration, in each district, from 9 in the morning until 9 in the evening, and the Argus hopes that before the latter hour, every Middletown Democrat will have registered.

KATE GREENAWAY CONCERT.

A Fine Programme Given at the Assembly Rooms, Thursday Night.

The Kate Greenaway concert given at the Assembly Rooms, Thursday night, under the direction of Mrs. J. Newton Emory, for the benefit of Christ Church, was one of the finest entertainments of its kind ever given in this city. There was a large audience and the programme received the unstinted applause it deserved.

The features of the evening were the songs by Miss Nora Bowser and Miss Marie Todd; Miss Ella Case's solo, "I love to sing"; the bird cantata in which Miss Case was the whippoorwill, Miss Myra Wager, the owl, Miss Myra Gibbs, the quail, and Miss Lavinia Green, the crow. "The cuckoo calls us," a trio, was very good, and the trio "A little farm well tilled," by Masters Sammie Benjamin, Wallace LeFevre and Amos Wood, received great applause.

"The maids in the Moon, or Little Witches" was also very good. Those who took part in it were Misses Bertha Heide, Nette DeWitt, Mabel Mancey, Laura Walker, Grace Mages, Lillie Finn, Hattie Loveland.

The witches were costumed in real witch style, with peaked caps and brooms. Then there was the man in the moon, with the cat on top to add to the picture.

All of those who participated in the concert appeared in Kate Greenaway costumes.

The sale realized about $1,200, or a third of the indebtedness.

THEIR FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stalter Received Their Children and Grandchildren, Thursday Night.

Fifty years ago, Thursday, Charles Stalter and Rebecca Hartley were married at Hewitts, N. J. Thursday night in their comfortable home, No. 6 Grand avenue, and in the company of their children and grandchildren they celebrated the anniversary of the event. The evening was very pleasantly spent, presentations and a fine supper making the occasion a most happy one. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cox gave the couple a pretty banquet lamp and Mr. and Mrs. Joan J. Cox gave a large easy rocker to lend comfort to their declining years.

Mr. Stalter was a tinsmith in the iron works at Hewitts and was employed there for years. He has lived in Middletown for eighteen years and has been employed in the rolling mill.

Two children are living, Cora, wife of John J. Cox, and Edward Stalter, employed in the file shop. One son, William C., died a number of years ago. There are four grandchildren, Charles E., Edward J., and Gertrude Stalter and Edward Cox.

HELD UP NEAR TRI-STATES.

Galen Bennett, of Port Jervis, Waylaid on the River Road.

Galen Bennett, the well known marble dealer of Port Jervis, was held up, Thursday, on the river road in Monticello, below Port Jervis. A man jumped out of the woods and seized his horse by the bridle, but Mr. Bennett drew his revolver, which he carried because of the frequency of highway robberies in that section, and the sight of the weapon scared away the would-be robber.

Only the day before John Segler, of Sandyston, was waylaid at nearly the same point.

A vigorous demand is made that the authorities take some action toward rendering the Cobsville turnpike and the river road safe for public travel.

A $65,000 STOCK OF MERCHANDISE.

Autumn opening and sale of new Silks, Dress Goods, Cloaks, Capes, Jackets, Underwear, Blankets, Comfortables, Carpets, Rugs, etc., on Monday, Oct. 18th,

AT 9 O'CLOCK A. M.

We will open the season with one of the most complete stocks of new Dry Goods, Cloaks, Carpets, etc., ever shown in this city. This sale will continue through the season; all prices quoted will remain the same as long as the goods last. We advise an early call as a first pick here is worth something. Goods are advancing all the time, our goods were all contracted for before the advance in cloth and labor. We did not make any mistake this season in buying largely. Mr. Adams devotes all of his time buying for our four large stores, and he is always on the alert for manufacturers' ends, samples or any bargain in Dry Goods etc., etc., if the qualities are right. We haven't any trade for trash, low priced cheap stuff at any price. You can buy good goods nearly as cheap as you can buy the so-called sale goods.

Checks, Suits and Separate Skirts.

We have made special efforts to excel in all that comes under this head, and we believe that our collection of Coats, Capes, Jackets and Skirts cannot be surpassed in this country.

Ladies' Cloth Capes at $1.50, $2.50, $3.50, $4.50 up to $5.00 each.

Ladies' Jackets.

The latest style Jackets, lined and unlined, trimmed or plain. Jackets from $5 up.

Special.

Ladies' Jersey Jackets, Black or Colored, Fly Front, Band, Velvet Collars, Skirted Seams, at $7.50, hard to match at $9.

Jackets at $10, $12.50, $15 and up.

Children's Coats, Suits, and Jackets. The latest stock of popular priced Children's garments we have ever shown, from $1.50 up. We cut all sizes from 4 years up.

Ladies' Separate Skirts.

Our own make at $2.50, $3.50 and up.

You are especially invited to attend this Opening and Special Sale and we would again urge you to call the first week, if possible, for we cannot guarantee our stock of Dress Goods and Coats at such low prices. The new tariff has made the cloth higher and the manufacturers' terms with the striking cloak makers have made an advance in the labor, so this is an advantage in buying early this season.

The Money-Shea Comedy Co., which is billed to appear here all next week, numbers among its cast Little Nellie O'Neil, the phenomenal child dancer and singer. Ed. S. Money will also introduce specialties, among which mention might be made of his knock-out songs and dances, which are unusually many. Lou Finner will feature in musical specialties and the Gilly Bros. in their new drum major act.

The orchestra is also a first class one and will render descriptive music between the acts.

The opening bill will be that sterling comedy drama, "The Life Savers," presented with great dramatic situations and amusing and pleasing specialties.

WAS IT THE MURDERER?

Sheriff Watson Thinks the Man in the Woods at Ulster Heights May Have Been Christien.

Sheriff Watson and Deputy Avery visited Ulster Heights, last Friday, to look after the man, supposed to be Christien, the Sullivan County Park murderer, who has been lurking in the woods in that vicinity. They saw nothing of the man, but after hearing the descriptions given of him by the people of that vicinity, expressed the belief that the man might be Christien. They returned to Monticello.

The Ellenville Press says that shortly before sunset the same day Mrs. Gus Geiger came suddenly on the man, who, being taken by surprise, struck out on a run toward the Beckkill, but was seen by Mr. Geiger before he disappeared. It was reported around Ellenville, Saturday, that a man of the same description had been seen early Saturday morning going through the village toward the Shawangunk mountain.

The Monticello Watchman says that word of the presence of the man in the woods at Ulster Heights was brought to Monticello by a Mr. Sawyer, who discovered him while searching for his cattle in the wilderness. On looking through the forest he thought he heard some one running, and on going a little farther he came upon a bush cabin, built with fashion, large enough for a man to lie at ease.

In front of the cabin was a bed of coals. Right beside the cabin was a break in the heavy wire fence, made for the purpose of reaching a swamp almost impenetrable in the growth of laurel and underbrush. The brush tent was on a knoll and in another direction and more safely protected from the wind was a similar affair. Sheriff Watson and Under Sheriff D. S. Avery went to the place on Friday morning and found everything as represented by Sawyer. They also found the people in the surrounding country in a terrified state. All believed that Christien was there, and the terrible reputation of the man forbade any attempt at his capture.

An officer from Ellenville accompanied Watson and Avery to the place, which is about six miles from Ellenville and eight miles from the Sullivan Park buildings, the scene of the bloody tragedy in which Pineland died. Upon going on the knoll the park and club buildings were in plain sight, and so was every road and farmhouse in the surrounding country. From this commanding view in three minutes walk would take one in view of the most dense and impenetrable jungles that can be found.

Arriving at the brush tent the officers found some burned benches and some beds in strange skins. When they were returning they met a man coming into the woods who described the stranger, and Mr. Avery, who knows Christien well, says he has no doubt of the identity of the man, and that he is the murderer.

On Saturday the Sheriff received a telephone message from the constable at Ellenville, stating that the night watchman had seen the same man go through the forest on Sunday morning at 1 o'clock.

A VERY COMMON

Practice is to advertise an article at one price and as being "worth" much more, without the reason for the lower price being made. It's a maxim of ours that merchandise is worth only what it sells for. For instance, we sell a very heavy ribbed and fleeced Ladies' Vest at 25 CTS, at a profit to us, and we know of their being sold at 30c. Our methods make it possible at 25c. Likewise SAILORS we are selling at 49 CTS, are being retailed elsewhere at 75c and $1 on this street. Again our methods make it possible.
